THE IRISH REVOLT IN INDIANA

THESA, E. BINDURI

The Irish revolt is destined to be a very serious affair to the Democratic party in Indianapolis, and in several cities throughout the State. The accessions to the Republican party from the Irish are greater this gen than ever known before. At each day John Marphy, for many vent, a prominent Democrat of that in his support of the Republicans. In Indianapolis there has grown to be a large Irish Republican vote, and Br-hop Chatford, has declared him-ness that must needs bring happiness and

According to the reports by cable, the first real conflict between the opposing armies in the Egyptian war, has resulted in an overwhelming triumph for the British. The telegraph states that Gen. Wolseley assaulted Arabi Pasha's stronghold at Tel el Kebir, early yesterday morning, and after a struggle lasting only twenty minutes, it was carried, with the capture of forty guns and a large number of prisoners, the remainder of Arabi's forces being scattered in a denoralized condition.

THE Decatur Reds were to have held a business meeting last evening, but the members didn't feel interested enough to come around to the appointed place. Later Ed. Martin chatted with a reporter and wanted to know if he wanted to join the Reds, to which, of course, the tall pitcher received a negative reply. Ed. said the organization is as good as disbunded, and that so far as he knew, no more games would be played by the old Reds in Decatur. The club made a fair record and engaged in many close contests, but the novelty has worn off. The b. b. fever has gradually died out. The interest of the public in the national game has abated. The crowds won't turn out any more. The boys don't like to that he wants a full and fair trial, with play before empty benches. It don't pay,

THE BIG BARBECUE

Grand Time at the Old Settlers' Reunion at Mt. Pulaski Yesterday.

Addresses by Ex-Gov. Oglesby, J. R. Govin, D. P. Bunn, Joab Wilkinson, D. K. Wilson and Others.

The Old Settlers' organization, formed n 1818, held its grand annual barbeeue and feast jubilee at Mt. Pulaski, on yesterday, and the day being fine for an out-door gathering, it proved an immense success socially for all present, and considerable money was left among the merchants and the hucksters in the ancient town on the hill, 22 miles distant, on the Peoria, Decatur & Evansville railroad. It is variously estimated that there were from 12,000 to 15,000 people on the grounds, among whom were 460 aged people registered as having been in the State since 1830, and nearly 700 who have been in Illinois over 40 years, and all these, no matter from what part of the country they same, were decorated with badgesblue for the 50 year settlers, and red for the 40 year settlers—on which are printed these words:

*Old Settlors' Reunion. (State organized in (1818.) Illustrated Mottoof State of Illinoi-Grand Barbecue and Feast Jubile. Mt. Pulaski, Illinois, Sept. 33, 1882."

The rennion was given under the man gement of D. W. Clark, president; Col. R. B. Latham, vice president: Capt. Frank Fisk, secretary, and John F. Schick, jr., S. Linn Beidler and Charles S. Capps. members of the executive committee, The public exercises took place in the public square, beneath abundant shade, and during the day the following programme was observed: PROGRAMME

The dinner was served in great abundance, and embraced beef cooked to a turn, chicken, corn and wheat bread, potatoes, stewed finite, honey, pies, cakes, etc. None went away hangry and there was plenty left for the late comers. The coffee was made by steam in an immense vessel holding many gallons. The meats were cooked by steam in a house prepared for this purpose. There was no trouble at all about this part of the arrangement. The quarters were placed on shelves in the building, which was about the size of the Re-PUBLICAN Sanctum, and then the steam

Among the curiosities exhibited was an old-fashioned hominy mill. The wedge was, tied to a piece of cord attached to the end of a limber limb of a sapling, which was so arranged as to bend part way over the top of the ernde vessel, so that the wedge could perform its crushing work. The other relies of the olden days were a coverlet which was first used 98 years ago, exhibited by Mrs. Demint; a counterpane which had been used 48 years, shown by Mrs. Scroggins, and an antiquated copy book, dating back to the 17th century.

A SAD MISHAP. The Distressing Accident Which Refei L.

L. Curtis Yesterday in St. Louis.

Last evening Justice Curtis received a telegram from St. Louis, making the brief statement that his eldest son, Lamar L. Cartis, was a cripple in the St. Louis hospital, his right foot having been cut off accidentally. The news naturally shocked the father and the relatives and many friends of the young man in Decatur, and numerous inquiries were made as to how the dreadful accident occurred, but as no particulars were given in the telegram, of course the desired information could not be obtained. The telegram was not reeived until five or ten minutes past three clock, but at once Frank Curtis got ready to visit his unfortunate brother, and be departed for St. Louis on the 3:50 frain. Lamar was formerly connected with the Wabash road in Decatur, having charge of a switch crew, but when the late W. H. Fanning went to St. Louis, he soon followed, the two men having been great personal friends. Lamar was working for the Missouri Pacific railway company and had charge of a switch engine crew at the time he was injured. It was a responsible position and commanded a good salary.

LATER NEWS. The Globe Democrat of to-day contained the following reference to the accident "L. L. Curtis, a brakeman employed on the Missouri Pacific Railroad, while climbing on a moving car yesterday morning at the Twenty-first street cross ing, fell and was run over, his right foot being cut off. He was taken to the Dispensary. Curtis lives at 1108 South Thirteenth street." The St. Louis Repubtican also mentioned the mishap, stating that switch engine 329 in the Missouri Pacific yard backed up on Lamar, resulting as above stated. This forenoon Justice Curtis received a telegram from his son Frank, of which the following is a "Sr. Lours, Sept. 14.

Have seen Lamar. Right foot cut off. Doing well. Will come home to-morrow. FRANK CURTIS."

Bro. Wright in St. Louis.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat of today devotes nearly two columns of space to an article headed, "A Huge Humbug," which refers to "The Local Union of the Marion Trust Company of Indianapolis, for which John N. Wright, formerly a resident of Decatur, is the general secretary in St. Louis. Our people are somewhat familiar with the absurd claims of the Marion Trust Company, whose agents tried to do business in this community but were compelled to cease operations through fear of being prosecuted on charges of violating the insurance laws of Illinois. On being interviewed in St. Louis yesterday Mr. Wright told a G-D. reporter that the Local Union had 296 members, and that he had secured seven the day before. Mr. Wright is correctly described by the reporter as a clerical looking gentleman, but his operations are denounced in plain words and the whole scheme exposed. It is shown that by a person putting in $23 and paying a few assessments, he 'might' draw out $1200 from the "reserve fund" within twelve months, but so far as the reporter could learn, no one could be found who had charge of the inexhaustible "reserve fund." The exposure of the scheme will doubtless make trouble for Mr. Wright, the local officers of the concern and its agents. The Insurance Department of St. Louis will investigate the affair at

"Let the People Rule."

The outspoken resolutions on the ques tion of submitting the proposed prohibition amendment to a vote of the people, adopted by a unanimous vote of the 69 delegates attending the recent Republican county convention, have been copied and commented upon favorably by such papers as the Chicago Eccuting Journal, $56,310, the Jacksonville Journal, and others. Now comes the Alton Telegraph, with the same resolutions in its columns, headed with "Let the People Rule," coupled with like favorable endorsement. The Telegraph says in conclusion: "We hope to see the Republicans of Madison county

"The Willis Grape." We received a call to-day from Mr. II. B. Evans, of Tuscola, who is engaged in introducing among our city and country people the famous "Willis White Grape," the leading specialty of the nursery owned by W. W. Jones, at Camargo, Ill. We have spoken in former issues of the merits of this celebrated grape, which is a seedling of the Delaware, and is specially desirable for table use. The berries are about the size of the Catawha and a little oblong; they bunch conpact like the Delaware, and often shouldered, thin skin, seeds small, no pulp, and the flavor is better than any other variety. Mr. Jones gathered 42 pounds of these grapes from one vine. "The White Willis" are the first premium family grapes, and have hosts of friends in Macon county. Mr. Evans will also take orders for any kind of ornamentral trees, small fruits and ahrubbers.

THE prohibitionists in Logan have been trying to nominate a full county ticket, but although several mass meetings have been held, they have failed in their purpose thus far. They cannot agree among themselves. Os the 20th of this month the annual meeting of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist church will convene at Lincoln. Aside from the regular business of the session, the great feature of the meeting will be the trial of Rev. Hoffman. It is possible that Mr. Montgomery, of this city, will be engaged by the prosecution to be present to make a short hand report of the evidence that may be offered on both sides.

And Yet Another Wabash Wreck. Two frisky Wabash freight trains came together with a crash at Ivesdale, on the main line, beyond Bement last night, and in consequence of the little diversion from the regular movement of the rolling stock the track at that point on the road has been blockaded to-day, none of the west-hound morning trains having arrived in Decatur up to noon. So far as can be learned there was no loss of life Evidently something serious has gone wrong with the management of the Springfield Division of the road. "Accidents" of a similar character occur almost daily. Possibly the train despatcher doesn't understand his busines. If he does not a new man ought to succeed

The Keystone of Health

How can you expect to feel well, or even enoy life, when you go about with a hacking cough? The fool, in his wis don, says there is no care for it, but the wise man has him to Dr. A. J. Stoners.

We hold that me chants are as much bound to adhere to the truth in their advertisements as firmers or me changes in their Lusiness transactions and that misrepresentations are resorted to where there is no ment, and for the purpose of deceiving the plain unsuspecting class, who can least afford the decep tion, which robs them of their dues Goods constantly change in styles and pieces, so that the most experienced mer hants find it difficult to determine valtes, and the seeming aitle sness which mests the ordin us buser, or the 'intelligent public" with a knowledge of mer chandise, that mine merchants in ten do not possess, may be very fluttering in fleed, but this observation is only made to full persons into security in order to practice a still greater deception. There is no law to punish dealers for representing their purchases as coming direct from aporters and manufacturers, when the tations on paper will do so over the coun-ter; consequently to show courtes; where it does not belong, or to AFFECT a regard for the integrity of all competitors might seem very magnanimous were it not for these palpable evidences to the contrary.

We invite the most critical investigation to what we say and do in Day Goods and Carpers; also to every other article
